SUPREME COURT NO. 2022-ADM-0003-MS

COVID-19 ORDER NO. 18
(Effective February 26, 2022 to April 29, 2022)

On January 3, 2022, this Court entered Administrative Order No. 2022-ADM-0001-MS concerning the Judiciary's COVID-19 precautionary measures. The evolving nature of COVID-19 and the demand for judicial services continue to warrant maintaining court operations for the public. From October 28, 2021, to February 12, 2022, the number of COVID-19 cases rapidly rose in the community with 7,530 confirmed positive.<sup>1</sup> Concomitantly, the Centers for Disease Control has shortened the isolation time for individuals who are confirmed positive, and removed quarantine restrictions for those who are exposed to the virus and have had their booster shots.<sup>2</sup> Pursuant to the Supreme Court's inherent and supervisory powers under Article IV, Section 3 of the NMI Constitution and 1 CMC § 3401(a), the Court ORDERS the following:

I. GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

A. General Administrative Provisions.

- (1) Justices and Judges are charged with the responsibility of ensuring that core constitutional functions and rights are protected. Additionally, Judiciary staff are charged with ensuring that court functions continue. All members of the Judiciary are urged to limit in-person courtroom contact as much as possible by using available technologies including electronic filing

V. PUBLIC HEALTH MEASURES

- A. The Court remains cognizant of the need to protect the health and safety of court employees and the general public.
- B. Persons with apparent symptoms of COVID-19 such as a fever of over 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit or 38 degrees Celsius, severe cough, or shortness of breath may be prohibited from entering the facilities.
- C. The Court requires all persons while at NMI Judiciary facilities or properties to wear a mask that covers the nose and mouth, stay six feet apart from others who are not in the same household, and to wash their hands often.
- D. Persons who have COVID-19 or been in close contact with someone who has COVID-19 shall not enter the facilities, unless they are fully vaccinated or have recovered from COVID-19. For purposes of this Order, a person who has been in close contact with someone who has COVID-19 is defined by the Centers for Disease Control as any person who:
- (1) Was within six feet of someone who has COVID-19 for a total of 15 minutes or more;
  - (2) Has provided care at home to someone who is sick with COVID-19;

- (3) Has had direct physical contact with a person with COVID-19; or
- (4) Had a person with COVID-19 sneeze, cough, or whose respiratory droplets landed on him or her.

A person who has been in close contact with someone who has COVID-19 and who has business before the court(s) shall contact their attorney, if any, and the Office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court or the Clerk of the Superior Court by telephone or other remote means, inform court personnel of the nature of his or her business before the court, and receive further instruction.

SO ORDERED this 25th day of February 2022.
